C. Harvey Safe In America

His Arrival In Montreal—
New Visiting Sister In Washington D. C.

Wm. C. Harvey, son of Mayor and Mrs. J. L. Harvey, is safe in America. A telegram from him last Sunday, announced his safe arrival in Montreal, Canada, and another one received a few days later told of his arrival in New York and his intention to visit Washington, where his sister, Mrs. D. A. West, lives.

Last Friday a letter and five post cards from Germany and a letter written on board the ship, were received by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey. In the letter written on the ship he stated that he was just passing some of the largest of the coast of New Foundland, and would be glad when the ship arrived in the harbor. On the ship were one hundred Mormons returning to Utah among whom were Elihu Call, Organist of the Mormon Church, and Roman Hyde who had been studying music and Harold Goodrich of Lehi. He had seen June West of London, who had arrived from Switzerland too late to get the boat on the 18th, on which date Mr. Harvey left Liverpool.

The letter from Germany was the first received since the war had gotten a good start and at a time when he had no intention of leaving Leipzig, over which conference he had been president for some time. He stated that he people had no reason to fear as to his welfare, that he was enjoying more freedom in traveling around among the branches than had been granted for a long time. That more effective work in the missionary way was being accomplished, and the German people had become very religious, and were attending the meetings better.

He stated that we could hardly imagine how joyfully the German soldiers go to war. They go as if going on a pleasure trip. The sad ones are those left at home. Even the women would like to fight if they could. When war was declared, the excitement was indescribable. Now it is more quiet. He would like to read an American paper—the reports are so different in different countries. So far as he could learn Germany was victorious. Many are suffering now because of the war, and if it continues, famine will result.

The people are very patriotic and have devotion to their country the highest thing on earth. As Mr. Harvey has been gone but sixteen months, he will be assigned some mission in American, probably the Northern States.

Betterment League To Be Organized

At the Union Parents, meeting last Sunday, Geo. Stratup of Provo, was present and made a stirring address along betterment lines, after which there was general discussion of the subjects treated upon. John Holdaway, George Larson and Mrs. Susan Jensen, with their assistants, were appointed a committee to draft by-laws and suggest names for permanent officers.

This committee met Thursday evening and elected John Halliday as chairman and Mrs. Luella Thorne as secretary and treasurer. There will be one vice chairman, also a lady and gentlemen from each ward as members of the executive committee. Wm. C. Hayes and Bert Olpin will represent the other two Pleasant Grove wards as vice presidents, and the Manila and London members will be elected later, after which the committee will report to another meeting.

WADLEY-CHRISTAL NUPTIALS

Tuesday, Miss Lila Wadley and Leand Crystal went to Provo, secured a license and were married. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wadley, and the groom is a son of Peter Crystal of Albion, Idaho where the young people will reside.

CONTINENTAL MISSIONARIES TO BE RELEASED

A letter, received this week from the Anderson who is president of the Bergen Conference in Norway, stated that he had instructions to release the elders whose terms were nearly up, and to prepare the mission to have the branches in the hands of trained and tried local brethren. The order was taken as a hint that the remaining elders might be called out at any time on short notice. Wednesday, a cablegram from President Hyrum M. Smith, stated that all the elders in the continent had been released. This will probably mean that Elder Anderson will soon come home.

THRESHING SEASON ENDED

Pleasant Grove does something besides raise fruit. This season over 83,000 bushels of grain were threshed in Pleasant Grove by the three threshing outfits, divided as follows: John Nelson and company 33,000, Iron Clad company 27,000 and Warburton and Hayes company 23,000. The threshing season is now over.

Wilson Club Meeting

The Wilson Club will hold a meeting to the public in its new home, the Rex Theatre building, on Wednesday night, October 7, at 8 o'clock. The club has taken a lease on the Rex Theatre and will give a public meeting every Wednesday evening. These meetings will be of the very highest order, educational in nature and not petty fogging or "mud slinging." The speakers Wednesday night will be Prof. Christen Jensen, who will discuss the foreign policy of the Wilson administration, with special emphasis upon the problems of international law and diplomacy that the administration has to deal with in the Mexican imbroglio, and the present European crisis. Prof. Jensen is the foremost authority in the state on the questions of international law and diplomacy, and is a very earnest speaker.

County Attorney Grant C. Bagley will also be present and discuss some of the issues of the present campaign from the point of view of their moral significance and import. The County Attorney is a very pleasant and entertaining speaker, full of wit and humor, and will undoubtedly afford a full portion of merriment as well as enlightenment on the questions of law enforcement and Woodrow Wilson.

There will be several musical numbers on the program, and a lively time is ensured. Everybody come and bring your friends. Eight o'clock, Wednesday night, Rex Theatre.

Anderson Case to be Dismissed

Some time ago we published an account of the arrest and preliminary hearing of G. A. Anderson on a statutory charge, alleged to have happened with a young lady in American Fork. This paper intimated at the time that the county had a reason for arresting and throwing a shadow on Mr. Anderson. The County Attorney has now decided to recommend to the District Attorney that the case be dismissed.

We think it but right that some of the facts in the case be published. The girl in the case and her mother were emphatic that the offense charged in the complaint happened in October. Several of Mr. Anderson's friends said, that the girl's story could not be true, as they remembered distinctly having introduced the two to each other in the following February or March. They remembered the date distinctly because of a certain basket ball game played in Lehi. On cross examination the young lady emphatically corroborated the story of Anderson's friends in every respect, excepting as to the date when this basket ball game took place, which she alleged was played in October.

As invitations had been printed announcing the basket ball game, which, by the way, was the only one Anderson was ever interested in, and fixing its time as the latter part of February. The county is convinced that they have the wrong man in the case and will not proceed with the prosecution.

ELIAS PIERCE NOW WEARS THE STAR

Elias Pierce, the new city marshal, commenced wearing his star Thursday morning. He has no particular policy to carry out, except the enforcement of the city ordinances. From another source it is learned that certain fruit peddlers will probably be more careful with the character of the loads they have on their return journeys. The new marshal has the support of all the people, which is amply justified by his record in holding a similar position before.

MRS. HAYES HONORED

The Mutual Girls of the Second Ward gave their retiring president, Mrs. Hattie Hayes, a pleasant surprise party in the Tabernacle Monday evening. Mrs. Hayes has been president for the past six years, and as a token of the appreciation of her past labors, the girls gave her a beautiful brass jardiniere. There was also a program and refreshments.

brass jardiniere. There was also a program and refreshments. Mrs. Emma Overlade is Mrs. Hayes' successor. She has not yet chosen her councilors.

Junius West Is Coming to America

Left Liverpool September 30th—Will Probably Labor in United States.

Recent letters from Junius West and dated London, September 18th, states that he has been released and is now on the Atlantic Ocean, intending at the time of writing his last letter to sail from Liverpool on September 30th. About the 10th of October he will arrive in Montreal. The letters do not state whether he will come home upon arriving in America, or whether he will be assigned to some conference in the United States, but as he has been gone only fifteen months, and as the church is assigning many European missionaries to fields in the states, it is probable he will not come directly home.

The letter states that all the Elders have been taken out of the German, Swiss and French missions for at least till after the war is over, and those whose time had not expired would be assigned to other fields.

After closing up his affairs in Switzerland, he and companion walked from Basel over the boundary line into Germany, then took the train to Frankfurt. Here they were held up as spies, but their American passports soon gained them their release and they went on to Rotterdam, where they took a boat for England. While passing through Germany, they heard the roar of cannons in distant battle fields, and saw many cars loaded with both German and French injured soldiers.

In Germany all was peaceful, the people going about their usual vocations and all supporting totally the was policy of the government. In England all the reports were that the allies had the Germans whipped, while in Germany all reports stated that the Germans had the French and English almost driven out of Europe.

Funeral Services For Jeppa Nielson

Funeral services for Jeppa Nielson were held in the Tabernacle Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock p. m.

The house was filled with friends who came from surrounding wards. Bishop S. L. Swenson presided and the choir of the three wards furnished music. The casket of solid oak was a literal bank of flowers. R. D. Wadley offered the opening prayer and Joseph Thorne offered the benediction; Bishop Olpin dedicated the grave. The speakers, all of whom bore record of the splendid character of the deceased, were Bishop C. P. Warnick, Wilford Poulson, W. L. Hayes, President Stephen L. Chipman, President James H. Clarke and Bishop S. L. Swenson.

All of Mr. Nielson's living children were present.

Another Accident On Interurban

Motor Car Bunts Into Dog, Car Jumps the Track Spilling the Occupants and Injuring Two Ladies.

An accident on the Interurban last Friday evening resulted in Mrs. John Conway breaking her collar bone and Mrs. Joseph Fage receiving some cuts on her head and being considerably bruised and shaken up otherwise. It was little short of miraculous that no one was hurt worse.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Fage and Mr. and Mrs. John Conway mounted Mr. Conway's speeder or motor car and were going on the Interurban track to attend the vaudeville performance at the M. I. A. Fair in the Stake Tabernacle, in one of the acts of which Mr. Fage had a part.

They were following up the seven o'clock car, were just out of the city limits and were just getting up speed when a dog came running out. The right side wheels struck the dog and over went the car with its four occupants. A doctor was sent for Mr. and Mrs. Conway, and Mrs. Fage went back to Pleasant Grove and Mr. Fage went on to American Fork. The doctor dressed the wounds and Mr. played the Irishman's part in the play.

Mr. Conway is foreman over the construction gang on the Orem road, and it was his car that the party was riding.

W. C. HUNT TRAVELOGER

Mr. W. C. Hunt, who gave his address as Yuma, Colorado, drove into town with an outfit which attracted considerable attention. It consisted of a little house on wheels with a trailer, drawn by three donkeys abreast and a brown horse on the lead. On the side of his house was painted, "From Mexico to the Yellowstone and the Coast." He recently returned from the Yellowstone and is now on his way to the coast. He takes slides of his travels, and to pay expenses occasionally delivers travelogues illustrated with his own views.
